Funds received from the hardware sales undertaken by the Direct Sales division are treated for DIRECTV's accounting purposes as hardware cost recoupment for the Direct Sales Offers and Retention Offers and are not booked as revenue. There is no margin on these sales and the costs are considered a marketing expense. Thus, they are booked as an offset to the hardware costs.

The costs of the hardware are not considered a Cost of Sale.

For 2000, these amounts totaled $6.6M and $0.7M, respectively
